Dear fellow CAIS/CESI Assistant Head,

We are pleased to invite you to the annual CAIS/CESI Assistant Heads' Conference this year from April 21-24, 2010 in Montreal – hosted by The Study, Lower Canada College and Selwyn House.

The theme this year is “Building strong values and skills for student success in the 21st Century”. The conference schedule includes two outstanding speakers/facilitators, as well as a number of additional break-out sessions to discuss additional “hot-button” topics of interest.

As our keynote speaker, we are fortunate to have Dr. Dan Kindlon, a renowned speaker, psychologist and professor at Harvard University. He is the author of Alpha Girls, Raising Cain (co-authored with Michael Thompson), Too Much of a Good Thing, and Tough Times, Strong Children

As well, Carol Weston, author of GirlTalk, will provide us with her valuable insight into the lives of adolescent girls, based on her many years of personal experience as the online columnist “Dear Carol”. She has enjoyed an extensive speaking career, talking to students, parents and educators across North America, and she has also appeared on the Today Show, The View and Oprah Winfrey.

For the additional break-out sessions, please contact Linda Gendron at lgendron@lcc.ca with your suggestions for discussion topics and/or your interest in facilitating a small group session.

The fee for the conference is $675.00 and includes all sessions, breakfasts, breaks, lunches, the opening reception and a subsidized Friday evening supper at “Gibbys” in Old Montreal. Please register on the CAIS/CESI website at www.cais.ca. Rooms have been blocked at Le Centre Sheraton Montreal, one of the top downtown hotels, conveniently located close to shopping and night life at the amazing price of $129.00 per night. These will be held until February 19, 2010 only. The CAIS/CESI conference reservation link to book rooms only is:

We sincerely hope that you will plan to attend the conference this year, and look forward to hosting you for informative speakers, a tour of our schools, some incredible networking with other Assistant Heads from across Canada, and a unique “cultural” experience in the exciting city of Montreal!

Best regards,

Antonia Zannis
